DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Uhl (US 5,287,832). Spring force is accumulated and dwindled by spring 14 when the rope is pulled and released to start the engine. Regarding claim 2, direct connection is provided by stops 27 and 28. Regarding claims 3 and 4, a cover is defined by the base 10A of the carrier 10.

Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Tsunoda et al (US 2004/0084004 A1) discloses a recoil starter having a force accumulating spring.
